Media Relations

System Level

The CU System office manages several outlets and programs that disseminate news and information to faculty and staff. Learn More.

These programs also promote CU's educational, research, and economic contributions to the rest of the world.

CU Connections ^[3] is an online publication providing news and information to the faculty and staff of the University of Colorado's campuses and system administration.

"CU on the Air" ^[4] is a podcast series that explores the University of Colorado's progressive, world-changing, life-saving research, providing leading-edge knowledge for friends of CU across the globe.

CU Advocacy Program ^[5] was created to build a network of educated and engaged people who care about the university and are prepared to promote its educational, research, and economic contributions to Colorado and beyond.

Campus External Media & Communications

Each of the four campuses has its own University Communications/Media Relations department. Learn More.

These departments help publicize news about CU with local, national, and international news organizations and showcase excellence and innovation in teaching and research.
