

Diversity and Inclusive Excellence Checklist

To complete the pathway, you will need to complete six tasks from the list below. Each task may have multiple requirements. By the end of this checklist you should be able to:

- Discuss and implement strategies for inclusion to your own role and responsibilities
- Uncover components of your own biases and perceptions
- Gain insight into other identities and experiences that are different from your own

Definitions:

- Diversity: Diversity describes the presence of differences within a given setting, collective or group. An individual is not diverse—a person is unique. Diversity is about a collective or a group and exists in relationship to others. Aspects of diversity can include all of the way in which people differ and vary, including identities such as race, ethnicity, gender, age, national origin, religion, disability, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, education, marital status, language, veteran status, physical appearance, etc.
- Inclusive Excellence: The recognition that a community or institution's success is dependent on how well it values, engages, and includes the rich diversity of students, staff, faculty, administrators, and alumni constituents.

Required:

- Include a Diversity and Inclusive Excellence goal in your annual performance review in order to implement strategies of diversity and inclusion into your role.

Events:

- Participate in at least two different CU events to get a taste of what diversity and inclusion looks like in other settings Note: check on the event websites to see when the event dates are.
