BOARD OF REGENTS

2. REGENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY

Policy 2.C: Regent Committees

2.C.1 Committee Governing Principles

Regent committees shall consist of standing committees and ad hoc committees. A standing committee shall be constituted in the manner and perform the functions described in the Board Laws or policies or other Board action that authorizes it. An ad hoc committee shall be established by the Board to undertake special assignments upon the completion of which the committee shall be dissolved.

(A) Regent standing committees shall meet no less than quarterly; determine the dates and times of its meetings, unless otherwise directed by the Board; post notices of its meetings as required by law and Board policy; take minutes of its meetings and report at regular board meetings; and may, upon compliance with state statutory requirements, meet in executive session.

(B) Regent standing committees may have members who are not members of the Board if authorized by the Board action establishing the committee.

(C) Regent standing committees shall have the authority to make recommendations to the Board, unless otherwise directed by the Board, but shall not have the authority to act on behalf of the Board unless the Board has expressly delegated authority to it.

(D) Regent standing committees shall have a chair and may have a vice chair, with the chair and vice chair to be appointed annually by the Chair of the Board of Regents. The chair and vice chair of regent committees shall be appointed after the last regularly scheduled board meeting of each fiscal year and shall assume these roles before the first regularly scheduled board meeting of the next fiscal years. Unless seven or more regents are members of the same political party, the chair and the vice chair of regent committees shall not be members of the same political party. Unless otherwise limited by these provisions, any regent is eligible to be appointed to the chair or vice chair of a regent committee irrespective of that regent's party affiliation. In making chair and vice chair appointments, the Chair of the Board of Regents should consider continuity of experience on the committees with the goal of building and maintaining institutional knowledge.

(E) Regent standing committees may have between three and five members. Members of regent committees shall be appointed after the last regularly scheduled board meeting of each fiscal year and shall assume these roles before the first regularly scheduled board meeting of the next fiscal year.

45 Unless seven or more regents are members of the same political party and the 46 committee consists of an even number of members, those members shall be 47 divided equally between regents of different political parties. Unless seven or 48 more regents are members of the same political party and the committee
49 consists of an odd number of regents, the number of regents appointed to
50 serve as members of the committee from any political party must be within one
51 of the members appointed from another political party. Unless otherwise
52 limited by these provisions, any regent is eligible to be a member of a regent
53 committee irrespective of that regent's party affiliation. In making committee
54 appointments, the Chair of the Board of Regents should consider continuity of 55 experience on the committees with the goal of building and maintaining 56 institutional knowledge.

- 57
- 58 (F) Regent committees shall, between the last regularly scheduled board meeting
59 of each fiscal year and the first regularly scheduled board meeting of the next 60 fiscal year, approve an annual work plan and provide that work plan to the 61 Board of Regents for its review. At each committee meeting, the members
62 shall review the work plan and make any necessary modifications.

63

64 2.C.2 Governance Committee

65

66 The Governance Committee of the Regents of the University of Colorado shall be a 67 standing committee.

68

69 The primary function of the committee is to review and recommend policies and 70 procedures to enhance the quality, efficiency and effectiveness of the Board of 71 Regents. The committee shall have all authority necessary to fulfill the duties and 72 responsibilities assigned to the committee in this charter or otherwise assigned to it by 73 the Board of Regents.

74

75 The committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- (B) Board of Regents Effectiveness:
- (1) Approve a board orientation process, ensuring that new board members have a clear understanding of the missions of the four campuses for which they are responsible and are aware of the role of Regents in the governance of a university system.
 - (2) Develop and support ongoing education of all regents, including the annual retreat and other opportunities.
 - (3) Establish performance criteria/expectations for regents.
 - (4) Establish, coordinate and review with the board chair criteria and method for evaluating the performance of the board.
 - (5) Oversee the development and implementation of conflict of interest, financial disclosure, and other policies relating to the efficient, effective, and ethical operation of the Board of Regents.

2.C.3 Finance Committee

The Finance Committee of the Regents of the University of Colorado shall be a standing committee. The primary function of the committee is to oversee the fiscal stability and condition of the university as well as the university's facilities and operations. The Finance Committee monitors the university's financial operations, debt level and investment performance.

The Board of Regents as a whole must exercise the fiduciary responsibilities and to provide guidance on fiscal policy and planning matters. To this end, the areas of tuition, fees, compensation, issuance of debt and the annual operating budget shall be the purview of the full board.

The Finance Committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- (A) The Finance Committee shall recommend to the Board of Regents:
- (1) long-range financial planning strategies;
 - (2) long-range facilities planning strategies, including facilities plans for each campus, the annual and 5-year and 10-year capital construction plans, 10-year master plans and financing, capital construction proposals, including those for auxiliaries;
 - (3) financial performance and asset allocation guidelines and other policies related to the university's treasury function;
 - (4) real estate transactions, including acquisition, disposal, operating and life cycle costs, the maintenance of facilities, and the use of university grounds, buildings and other property; and

- 144 (5) projects included in the university capital budget and capital budget
145 amendments.
146
147 (B) The Finance Committee shall review and report to the Board of Regents as 148 necessary:
149
150 (1) selected financial metrics that measure the university's fiscal condition;
151
152 (2) the annual financial statements in conjunction with the Regent Audit
153 Committee;
154
155 (3) periodic reports including, but are not limited to: enrollment, financial
156 aid, fundraising, research, procurement activity and University Risk
157 Management;
158
159 (4) the annual report on unrestricted net position;
160
161 (5) total indebtedness of the university;
162
163 (6) quarterly capital planning and project management reports;
164
165 (7) the investment portfolio;
166
167 (8) regular updates to the state revenue and expenditure forecast
168 maintained by the system CFO;
169
170 (9) the role, impact and management of university-related entities and 171 supporting organizations; and
172
173 (10) other financial reports as requested by the committee.
174

175 2.C.4 University Affairs Committee

176
177 The University Affairs Committee of the Regents of the University of Colorado shall be 178 a standing committee.
179

180 The committee focuses on the educational mission of the CU campuses. CU is 181 committed to delivering a high quality education: one that is focused on its students'
182 academic well-being; and committed to their acquisition of the knowledge, skills, and 183 attitudes to be informed citizens, productive workers, life-long learners, and 184 contributors to society. Thus, the committee serves as the primary review body for the 185 items listed below and makes recommendations to the Board of Regents based on its 186 review and deliberations. The committee shall have all authority necessary to fulfill the 187 duties and responsibilities assigned to the committee in this charter or otherwise
188 assigned to it by the Board of Regents.
