Policy 7.D: Student Government

7.D.1 Governing Documents

- (A) A campus student government ~~shall have a constitution, reviewed and approved by, shall be submitted to the chancellor for review and is subject to the chancellor's approval and . It may then be~~ ratified by a vote of the student body, as their governing document.
- (B) Proposed amendments to a campus student government constitution shall be submitted to the chancellor for consideration and approval. Upon approval by the chancellor, proposed amendments shall be voted upon by the student body. ~~The action of bringing the matter to the student body for a vote shall be subject to chancellor approval.~~ The chancellor's approval to conduct a vote shall not be interpreted as an endorsement of the proposed amendment, but shall indicate the chancellor's acceptance of the outcome of the vote.

7.D.2 Student Government Organizations and Operations

- (A) The campus administration and the campus student government organization shall develop an operating agreement that establishes the role of student government in managing student government-funded activities and in developing or reviewing campus policies relevant to student issues. The agreement shall not interfere with faculty control over academic policy.
- (B) Student government organizations shall conduct their affairs in a manner that is consistent with campus policies and procedures, the laws and policies of the Board of Regents, and the laws of Colorado. No undue constraints shall be placed upon student government operations.
- (C) The operations and budgets of student government organizations are subject to auditing in accordance with Board of Regents' fiduciary oversight responsibilities.

7.D.3 Disputes

- (A) Should a dispute arise between a student government organization and the chancellor that cannot be resolved, the student government organization may appeal to the president.
