The University of Colorado is legally required to give you documents such as Form 1095-C, the University of Colorado Health and Welfare Plan's Notice of Privacy Practices, a Summary Annual Report for the University of Colorado Health and Welfare Plan and Trust and more.

By opting in for digital delivery, these forms and notices will be delivered via email and stored in your employee portal. Delivery is customizable, so you can pick and choose how you receive these documents. Plan cards and other items will continue to be sent to your mailbox.

How to enroll in digital delivery:
